ABOUT NICOLA NAVON

Nicola is a speaker and communication coach, passionate about helping leader and teams strengthen their communication skills, resolve conflicts, and foster collaboration.

She has designed and led workshops and coaching programs that drive measurable breakthroughs in corporate environments. Nicola specializes in leadership development, conflict resolution, interpersonal communication strategies, and optimizing team dynamics through balancing and aligning masculine and feminine energetics.

TESTIMONIAL

"Nicola led an impactful interactive session with our team, giving us actionable tools to improve communication around needs, challenges, and navigating conflict. Her focus on specific words, tone, body language, and non-verbal cues helped us enhance both verbal and non-verbal communication—how we speak and how we listen. The workshop provided concrete strategies for deepening our collaboration and resolving challenges more effectively. If you're considering working with Nicola, lean in—I promise you'll be glad you said yes."

-Erika Linn, Founder and CEO, Sacred Strut

Workshops are designed to address your organization's unique challenges and can be offered as stand-alone trainings or combined into a longer-term program for impactful results. Workshops can also be tailored for keynote speeches.

I look forward to working with you to create a powerful event.
